COMMUNISTS ORDER GENERAL STRIKE OVER GERMANY; RIOTING ON

While Quiet Has Been Restored at Hamburg Fighting Reported From Other Towns in Same District

Berlin, Oct. 25.—Communists proclaimed a general strike today. While quiet had been restored at Hamburg, fighting was reported from other towns in the same district.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—German communists called a general strike today but immediately afterward issued an order confining it only to the printing trades. Leaders threatened to tie up all the newspaper plants.

Demonstrations were conducted throughout the city.

Hamburg, Oct. 25.—The harbor was completely tied up today by a strike. Police continued to "clean up" red "nests." Disorders took place in Wandbeck, which is close to this city.

INJUNCTION OF WALTONS OFFSET BY COURT ORDER

Oklahoma Supreme Court
Acts to Nullify Lower Bench.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 25.—An alternative writ of prohibition was granted by the state supreme court to offset a district court order that restrained Lieutenant Governor M. E. Trapp from performing any of the duties of governor heretofore performed by J. C. Walton, suspended Tuesday from office by the senate and impeached by the house of representatives.

Walton proclaimed a few days ago that he would fight to the last ditch, and his opponents assert that the last ditch was reached when his application for a temporary injunction directed against Trapp, his successor in office, was granted by Judge Tom G. Chambers, Sr., of the Oklahoma district court.

A few minutes after its issuance, Attorney General George F. Short and assistants were preparing, on behalf of the lieutenant governor designated by the senate as acting governor, action to nullify the district court's order, on the ground that such court did not have jurisdiction. With lightning dispatch the petitions were prepared and the supreme court assembled in conference. Immediate hearing was allowed. Five minutes after presentation of the matter the writ was granted.

Meantime house and senate had been busy. The house indicted Walton on five articles additional to the two charged against him Tuesday. The senate organized as a court of impeachment, with Chief Justice J. T. Johnson of the supreme court presiding, and rules for its procedure are in process of promulgation.

Walton has been impeached on seven counts, alleging diversion of state funds to private use, preventing assembly of a grand jury by force of arms, use of official influence and power to acquire money, for private use, suspension and denial of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, preventing by force of arms assembling of state house of representatives, and attempted prevention and prevention of special election.

In a statement Walton reiterated his charges of conspiracy to oust him and that the legislature's majority is under the thumb of the Ku Klux Klan. He further charged that the Klan was in collusion with special interests to ruin him.

BORDER TO BORDER AIR FLIGHT STARTS

Sumas, Wash., Oct. 25.—Under clear skies and ideal flying conditions Captain Lowell Smith and Lieutenant John T. Richter left here at 6:36 a. m. today in their attempted border-to-border, non-stop airplane flight to the Mexican border. They expected to refuel twice in the air.

The take-off was made a few minutes after daylight, from a farmer's field here. A large crowd was on hand to wish the aviators good luck.

"We ought to be at team field on the Mexican border in time for dinner tonight," Captain Smith said, just before entering the plane.

Fifty persons have been killed in the fighting since Monday.

According to figures received here this afternoon eleven police were killed Wednesday and five wounded.

Port workers at Hamburg are still striking but the city had quieted down this afternoon. The communists in the Hamburg zone concentrated at Wandbeck where they gave battle to the reichswehr.

The German police at Aachen easily captured the town hall. The separatists raised their hands without firing a shot. They wanted to surrender when the Belgians intervened.

Communists at Harburg enforced a general strike. The police brought machine guns into action in an effort to disperse the red mob. Barbed wire entanglements and barricades were erected in the streets.

The separatists are still holding the city hall at Aix-la-Chapelle, but were driven out of the town hall at Coblenz.

Many casualties were reported from Crefeld where nationalist forces engaged in three defensive operations against the separatists' forces. The republicans were reported to have recaptured the municipal buildings from the nationalist forces. There was considerable activity on the part of the separatists in Mecklenburg and Pomerania. No casualties were reported.

The republic movement spread since Tuesday from Wiersen to Wittlich. At Mayence the separatists occupied the police headquarters.

The situation at Coblenz, former headquarters of the American troops, became so serious that French troops were designated for patrol duty in the streets, where they dispersed all groups that threatened trouble.

In spite of the spread of the movement, however, the separatists received some setbacks. Ten separatists were beaten to death at Aix-la-Chapelle in a number of clashes, which finally reached the stage where the Belgian military authorities were forced to disarm both factions and establish severe penalties for shooting.

A state of siege was declared by the occupational authorities.

Food riots and other disturbances were reported from several sections, indicating that from 35 to 40 deaths and hundreds of wounded made up the toll.

Martial law was proclaimed at Hamburg and more than 500 arrests have been made. Marines in large numbers were landed from a warship to reinforce the police against the communists who were said to be establishing a line of trenches through the suburb of Schiffbeck. Firing kept Hamburg awake all night and more than 200 injured persons were taken to hospitals. Volunteer defense organizations are being formed in the outlying districts of Hamburg. Naval airplanes are "patrolling" the Hamburg harbor. One policeman was killed at Erfurt when rioting broke out.

The disturbances came nearer to Berlin when rioting by the unemployed broke out at Potsdam, many persons being injured. Serious rioting was reported from Kiel. Three are dead and many wounded at Frankfurt-on-Main in riots.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—Eighty railway trains loaded with reichswehr forces, approximately 50,000 troops, have arrived in Saxony to put down any attempt at a bolshevik revolution in the so-called "red citadel" of Germany.

These figures were given by Saxon Premier Zeigner, 32, who is sometimes spoken of as the coming "German Lenin." Zeigner arrived in Berlin from Dresden to attend the extraordinary session of the reichsrat, which took up the question of Bavaria's violation of the constitution.

"Saxony is the bulwark of the republic against the threatening restoration of the monarchy," declared Zeigner. Saxony is the most densely populated state in Europe. If our people have enough to eat, they will be the last in the world to engage in excesses, but, dependent wholly on imports for food, and with many industries shut down and much unemployment, the Saxon people are suffering terribly."

Zeigner said that soviet Russia was the first to come to the aid of the Saxon workmen. He said the Saxon socialists-communists hope to reach their goal peacefully.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS DISAPPEARANCE OF BROKER; POLICE CONDUCT SEARCH; TWO ARE HELD FOR INVESTIGATION

Mrs. May Drew Clark, Mrs. Sarah M. Schick, Everett Drew Clark, and George F. Schick.

BLAME BOOTLEGGERS FOR BOMBING OF RESIDENCE

Salem, O., Oct. 25.—What is believed to have been an attempt by bootleggers to kill Dr. S. F. Conrad, an East Palestine dentist, who has been active in prosecution of liquor law violators in this vicinity and in Youngstown, occurred here early this morning when his residence was dynamited, wrecking the home and breaking every window in the Methodist Church on an adjoining lot. The loss is estimated at over $2,000. The doctor and his family, who were asleep at the time of the blast, were all thrown from their beds, but miraculously escaped injury.

A motor car was seen to dash from the vicinity and headed toward Youngstown. Youngstown officers were notified and a dragnet was thrown out for the car but without result.

With the past year at least two dry agents have been killed not far from Salem in the Steubenville district, and a number of houses bombed.

Shortly after the San Diego (Cal.) police instituted a search for George F. Schick, immensely wealthy realty and investment broker, who was reported missing from his home, his wife, Mrs. Sarah M. Schick, presented what purported to be his power of attorney to take over his business. A police investigation led to her arrest, together with that of Everett Drew Clark, ostensibly on the charge of improper conduct before the Schick children, but in reality to hold them until it could be discovered whether Schick had been murdered. Clark, it is said, was living with Mrs. Schick and his wife, Mrs. May Drew Clark, organist in a San Diego church, was aware of their relations and had frequently visited them. The police are digging in the vicinity of the Schick home for Schick's body.

FARMER - LABOR ORGANIZATIONS WON'T BACK FORD MOVEMENT

Washington, Oct. 25.—Two of the national organizations of farmers and laborers, invited to attend a national conference at Detroit on December 12, at which plans will be launched for the Ford-for-president movement, announced here today, they will not participate. These organizations are the American Federation of Labor and the American Farm Bureau Federation.

"Most certainly," declared E. B. Reed, of the Farm Bureau Federation, "the Farm Bureau Federation will not attend officially the convention to nominate Ford to head a new party."

Furthermore the bureau will not attend any other convention to select a presidential candidate.

No less emphatic in refusing the invitation was O. E. Corruith of the Federation of Labor, who spoke for Samuel Gompers, president, who has not returned from the annual convention in Portland, Ore.

"The American Federation of Labor will take no official action to send representatives to the Dearborn conference in December," said Corruith.

"It never has been the policy of this organization to participate in any nominating convention," Corruith explained. "We are not interested in the politics incident to the nomination of presidential aspirants. When the nomination of the organization to place a stamp of approval on that candidate who seems to promise the most in the way of beneficial acts for American labor, I suppose the same thing will be done in 1924."

PLAN MEMORIAL TO GEN. W. C. GORGAS

Chicago, Oct. 25.—The world's tribute to the memory of General William C. Gorgas, whose sanitation projects made possible the building of the Panama canal, will link more closely the scientific thought of North, Central and South America. The scientific laboratory to be located in the city of Panama and dedicated to General Gorgas' memory will accomplish this union. This was the prediction of Dr. J. J. Vallarino of Panama at the congress of the American College of Surgeons, which is solidly behind the proposed $5,000,000 endowment fund to carry on research work in tropical and preventative medicine.

The eradication of yellow fever, Dr. Vallarino said, has earned for General Gorgas the title of "economic savior of Cuba and the redeemer of the tropics."

A building site at the entrance of the Panama canal and $500,000 for laboratory construction has been given by the government of Panama, whose president, Belisario Porras, is the originator of the memorial plan to General Gorgas, Dr. Vallarino said.

INVOKES PADLOCK LAW IN CLEVELAND

Cleveland, Oct. 25.—Doors of 17 alleged "liquor joints" were ordered "padlocked" by Federal Judge Paul Jones, following wholesale complaint filed before him by Assistant United States District Attorney Fred S. Day. Proprietors of all of the places were branded notorious offenders by Day, who immediately dispatched a small army of federal marshals to the saloons with orders to close them immediately.

SHOOTING VICTIM DIES OF WOUND

Akron, O., Oct. 25.—"That's too bad—I'm sorry. I am ready now to take my punishment."

With these words, M. F. (Rabbit) Webb, in his cell this morning, greeted an announcement that Judge F. W. Gerhardt, of Detroit, had expired last night from a gunshot wound inflicted by Webb. The shooting took place in the lobby of the Portage Hotel here Saturday noon, after Judge Gerhardt and Judge P. C. Callen of Toronto refused to reinstate Webb following their decision ruling him off the Northampton track. Callen also was shot in the body before Webb was disarmed.

New York, Oct. 25.—Painting a gloomy picture of Europe whose fate he declared a "merciful God, had not yet disclosed," Elbert H. Gary, president of the American Steel and Iron Institute, said today America could help only by example.

In this desperate situation, Judge Gary said, speaking at the annual dinner of the Iron and Steel Institute, the United States is independent so far as business progress and prosperity are concerned. The business outlook for this country, he asserted, is excellent.

Of Europe, Judge Gary said: "Reparations have not been made. International entities are at fever heat. Governments have been overthrown and still others are threatened. Multitudes have been and are starving.

"National money has become valueless. Countries are drifting—some toward destruction. Suspicion, hate, revenge, brutality and crime are in evidence throughout Europe."

Declaring that the country's prosperity depends "much upon the White House," Gary paid a tribute to President Coolidge.

"While the public has received little information as to his convictions and his intentions since he became president," Gary said, "it may be assumed he will be governed by the same motives as those which have actuated an honorable and useful life."

"It is evidently the policy of the administration to eliminate agitation and extend the fullest encouragement to the constructive forces of the country."

HAYNES REPUDIATES ATTACKS OF BOARD

Washington, Oct. 25.—Attacks made by the Methodist Board of Temperance, prohibition and public morals upon Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair as officials unfit to direct prohibition enforcement, were repudiated today by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes.

Haynes wrote a letter to the board in which he defended Mellon and Blair, his superior officers and declared he had found them helpful and efficient in enforcement matters.

Cleveland, Oct. 25.—Overcome by fumes while distributing his men during a fire at the American Tent and Awning company, Walter J. Read, 40, battalion fire chief, died at a hospital. Death was due to suffocation, hospital physicians said. Damage to the awning company was estimated at $70,000.

FURTHER PROBE OF U.S. VETERANS' BUREAU TO FOLLOW LATE CHARGES

Treasury and Department of Justice Begin Investigation of Alleged Crimes Laid to Door of Bureau—Graft And Bribery Charged

Washington, Oct. 25.—Two new federal investigations into operation of the United States Veterans' Bureau were soon today as a sequel to the sensational charge of graft and bribery brought against Colonel Charles R. Forbes, former director, before a Senate committee.

These were:

1—The Treasury Department, through the internal revenue bureau, launched an inquiry into the whereabouts of $5,000,000 worth of drugs and narcotics stored by the bureau at Perryville, Md., during Forbes administration. Huge quantities of these drugs are reported to have "disappeared."

2—The Department of Justice was planning an exhaustive probe of charges involving Forbes in an alleged conspiracy to allot millions of dollars worth of hospital construction work to a favored clique of contractors in return for a "split of the profits."

The Senate committee's special staff of investigators, headed by Major General John F. O'Ryan, meanwhile, was probing the bureau's records for trace of fraud and graft throughout the government's $17,000,000 hospital construction program. Evidence of seeming fraud has been unearthed, it was said, in the leasing of sites and award of construction contracts in a number of instances.

Interest in the Senate inquiry today was centered on whether Forbes will accept an invitation of the committee to testify in his own defense. Forbes has told the international News Service he would accept "to tell his own side of the story."

Although the former director is reported to be in New York City today, prior to his departure he made the following statement in International News Service:

"I intended to give you a complete statement of this whole case but I have learned there will be further attacks upon me and I can't speak at this time. I will wait until they are finished—attacking me and then I'll tell my side of the story. When I do talk, they will get another sensation."

From other sources, it was learned Forbes has employed an attorney to represent him at further hearings of the senate committee. The attorney also is preparing the former director's defense.

The former director was said to be planning to use a dozen letters from the late President Harding as the basis of his defense. In these letters, the late executive frequently endorsed Forbes' administration of the bureau, it was said.

The internal revenue bureau's investigation of the reported "disappearance of drugs and narcotics from the medical supply store in Perryville, Md., was based on information given it by General O'Ryan, the senate's special investigator. Inventory of the stocks on hand at Perryville, it was said, does not agree with an inventory of stocks shipped there by the war department two years ago.

Evidence already has been unearthed of conditions which showed at least gross negligence in the "loss" of these drugs. It was said literally "tons of narcotics" are missing.

This situation was touched upon by Elias H. Mortimer of Philadelphia, in his sensational testimony yesterday before the senate committee. Mortimer testified Forbes had asked him to "clean up a fortune" by helping to privately dispose of the government's supply of drugs at Perryville.

A protracted investigation of alleged graft in hospital construction has been conducted by General O'Ryan, it was learned. This information will be turned over to the Department of Justice for such action as the legal authorities determine.

This evidence involves:

1—An alleged existence of a profit-sharing "contracting ring" between Forbes, the Hurley-Mason Company of Tacoma, Washington and the series of firms owned jointly by James H. Black and John W. Thompson, of St. Louis, by which profits on construction of government hospitals were to be shared equally three ways. Black died recently.

2—Charges of graft in the selection of a hospital site at Livermore, California, and alleged payment of $64,000 to Mathew O'Brien, of San Francisco, friend of Forbes, for worthless plans. This payment was approved by Charles F. Kramer, counsel of the bureau who since has committed suicide.

3—Award of a contract to C. D. Hurley, of Seattle, president of the Hurley-Mason Company, for construction of a hospital at American Lake, Washington. Forbes was a former vice president in this company.

4—Award of a contract to construct a hospital at Northampton, Mass., to the Pontiac Construction Company, of Detroit, owned by the Black-Thompson interests.

5—Alleged "loan" of $32,000 to Forbes by John W. Thompson, of St. Louis, during negotiation of construction contracts.

6—The alleged "loan" of $6,500 to Forbes by Mortimer under the same conditions.

7—Award of a $65,000 contract to the Sutherland Company of St. Louis for construction work at Tupper Lake, N. Y., for which Mortimer received a $25,000 commission.

The senate investigators, it was learned, are prepared to present much additional evidence relating to most of these cases when the committee reconvenes next Monday morning.

AGED WOMAN IS SLAIN; ROBBERY THOUGHT MOTIVE

Elyria Resident Murdered
In Home—Are Seeking—
Slayer

Elyria, O., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Anne E. Hebebrand, 79, living alone, was found brutally murdered today. The slaying is attributed to robbery. The victim put up a fierce battle before being rendered unconscious by a blow from a blunt instrument, probably the rung of a chair. Her skull was fractured by the blows.

The assailant made sure of death for as the unconscious form lay on the floor, marks about the neck indicated that death was hastened and made certain by choking.

The victim is worth $50,000 but only $60 was secured. The furniture and sewing machine were overturned. Two empty pocketbooks were found on the floor.

Two years ago, this same woman was hit over the head by a blunt instrument and for several weeks lay in a semi-conscious condition. Following this assault she placed the several thousand dollars secreted about the home in a bank.

LLOYD GEORGE IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

Washington, Oct. 25.—There will be no complete breaking up of the German reich, in the opinion of David Lloyd George, wartime premier of Great Britain.

"I believe," said Lloyd George today, during his first visit to Washington, "that the racial pride and feeling among the German peoples is too great to permit an utter collapse of nationalism."

Washington Oct. 25.—David Lloyd George, England's war time premier, came to Washington today to visit the capital, see a few old friends and incidentally, to lay before President Coolidge and administration leaders his oft-repeated appeal for the co-operation and active assistance of the United States in settling world problems.

His train reached the capital early this morning, but he did not leave it until shortly before 9 o'clock, when he emerged and drove down historic Pennsylvania avenue, at the Willard hotel, where he will make his headquarters during his stay.

AMERICA READY TO ASSIST EUROPE WASHINGTON SAYS

Washington, Oct. 25.—Ambassador Harvey's speech in London drew an authoritative exposition of the official American attitude toward the European crisis from the Coolidge administration. In substance, it follows:

The reparations question is fundamental and nothing like stability in Europe can be reached until the reparations sum is fixed and out of the way forever. The United States stands ready now, as it did last December, to assist in any way possible in the solution of the reparations problem, but only with the consent of all concerned. It will not attempt to force its assistance upon Europe.

The United States will not attempt to lead the way by cancelling debts owed by European nations. American sentiment is strongly against cancellation, and this administration will not even consider such a step. All European nations will find the United States disposed to be just, even generous, in terms for debt settlements, but the debts will not be canceled.

The integrity of Germany must be maintained if reparations are to be collected. The end of passive resistance by Germany has created a situation calling for the adoption of a definite financial plan.

Secretary of State Hughes' plan for a reparations fact finding commission to determine Germany's capacity to pay, it was revealed, was communicated through diplomatic channels before being made public in the New Haven address a year ago.

The present American attitude is that while the United States desires to be helpful, it can not seek to arrogate the right of foreign governments to determine the best methods for serving their own interests.

CAR ON FIRE AS OWNER DRIVES IT

When C. O. Miller, insurance company representative, Graham Apartments, South Whiteman street, saw the reflection of flames in the windshield of his Studebaker sedan while driving on the Upper Bellbrook pike near Xenia, Wednesday night, he discovered the tonneau of the machine was on fire.

The car was practically completely destroyed, although it may be possible to reclaim the scorched chassis. Miller first felt himself getting uncomfortably warm. He thought nothing of it until he saw the flames behind him reflected in the windshield glass.

All inflammable parts of the machine burned. The car was partly insured. It is now at the Gordon Bros. Garage.

The Monroe Doctrine.

The next session of Congress convenes December 4, 1923. Its assembly will mark the passage of 100 years since James Monroe delivered his presidential message to Congress, December 2, 1823, enunciating the Monroe Doctrine.

This doctrine set forth two broad propositions: first that the United States did not propose to permit European powers to further extend their political systems or governments to this hemisphere and second that the United States did not intend to interfere in the political affairs of Europe. President Monroe enunciated this American policy as a matter of self-defense for the United States and its democratic form of government. During this hundred years it has been known throughout the world as the American policy.

Secretary of State Hughes, in a recent address before the American Bar Association, took occasion to reaffirm it, saying, "with the passing of one hundred years, it remains a cherished policy inimical to no just interest and deemed to be vitally related to our own safety and to the peaceful progress of the people of this hemisphere."

The United States Senate in 1920 found it necessary to defend the Monroe Doctrine from the covenant of the league of nations which would have nullified its operation. This the Senate did by adopting a reservation to the league covenant which stated that the United States would not submit to the league of nations "any questions in which the judgement of the United States depend upon or relate to its long-established policy, commonly known as the Monroe Doctrine."

The Monroe Doctrine contributed much during the last hundred years to the growth of democratic institutions in this hemisphere and to the territorial integrity of the nations of this hemisphere. It is one of America's important contributions to the cause of free institutions and progressive civilization.

Styles BY LENORE

Nothing is so old-fashioned as a style four or five years old, and nothing is so new if it be but old enough. The model in the sketch, which is one of the newest ideas this fall at the Paris openings, takes the drapery of 1850 as its scheme, with an effect which only the lover of beautiful line can appreciate, and to which only the most graceful figure can do justice.

Gold lame shot with sunset rose has been used for this stunning gown, a gold brocade ribbon holding the drapery in place. As the sketch indicates, the material at each side in the back is disposed of in cascading ends, suggesting bacchanal influence. Moire, in coral or pea green, will also make up most beautifully on the same lines.

PAINTERSVILLE

Sunday will be a "red letter" day at the Paintersville Church, when Rally Day will be observed. Sunday School will open at 9:30 o'clock, with a Rally program at 10 o'clock. Twelve students of Cedarville College will fill the most important part of the program. Members of the church and citizens of the town will attend the meeting with well filled baskets. H. E. Baies is superintendent of the Sunday School.

The proprietors of the old pork house on East Church Street have sold the material of the building and it is to be moved. This is a matter of congratulation as a certainly would not be desirable to have the unsightly structure remain there after our elegant new Carnegie library, in such close proximity is finished.

Today's Talk

THE DESIRE

No matter how many excuses you may offer for your failure to rise to the heights you most desire, one fact remains—you rise no higher than you desire to rise.

Even when you are so fortunate as to have something handed to you you have to reach to take it. Nested and warmed, there lies in every human heart, some sort of desire—a desire to rise above mediocrity, a desire to surpass present effort, to be strong and able and fit, ready for emergency or the call of a fortunate hour.

But desires must be fed. You cannot have a desire and then leave it alone. It will die. Move with your desire, give it clothes, take it out into the world and introduce it to activities and affairs of movement.

Talk to your desires. Each one is surrounded with some one or many chances. So that if your desires are fed and led aright, all that you are takes on growth and strength.

The desire in your heart is what you are, what you hope to be, what you determine to be.

You must carry about with you mental pictures of the thing you most desire and then that thing shall come to pass. And you must keep stepping toward it. You must keep wrapping it with your dreams—and then with actual deeds.

It is much easier to rise than it is to fall. Every time you make an effort you accumulate new strength. But every time you let yourself fall you lose strength.

Desire stimulates. And it is born

Child-birth

WHEN the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined.

An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradford Regulator Co., B.A.75, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

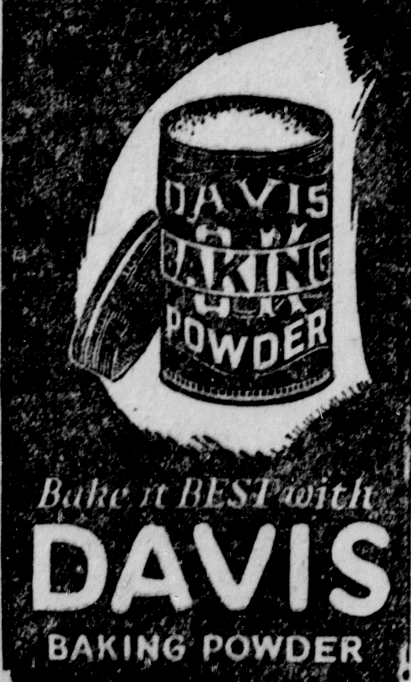

Cuticura Heals Pimples On Face Shoulders and Back

"My trouble started with large, red, sore pimples that affected my face, shoulders and back. The pimples festered and at times itched and burned. My face was disfigured, and my clothing aggravated the breaking out on my body. I was troubled that way for three years."

"I tried many remedies but they did not help me. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using it I got relief. I purchased more and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Virginia Crandall, 423 Van Buren St., St. Paul, Minn.

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

A listed security is not necessarily better than an unlisted one. Each has its advantages.

The characteristics of listed and

(2) DAILY QUOTATIONS	(2) LESS FLUCTUATION

unlisted securities are shown in the illustration. Listed bonds have several advantages.

tages. They have a quick ready market, their prices being quoted daily in many newspapers. This gives them a higher collateral value, particularly in the large financial centers.

The vast majority of unlisted securities do not have as quick a market as the listed, although there is a large volume of trading in them. Consequently an unlisted bond is not so likely to slump in sympathy with a general decline in the stock and bond markets.

In comparing the two, it is important, in the case of a listed bond, to analyze carefully the company issuing the securities. In the case of the unlisted bond, the bank or bond house selling security must also be considered because the house behind the bond is going to watch it and make a market for it. A good house feels the responsibility of its bonds keenly while a poor one is only interested in making a sale.

HOLD TUBERCULOSIS CLINIC IN XENIA

A tuberculosis clinic with thorough physical examination of persons believed to have incipient cases of the disease will be conducted in Greene County in the next few weeks as part of the state and district health program, as announced by Dr. H. R. Grube district health commissioner following receipt from the State Department of Health of an offer to install such service here. This service will be without expense to those examined.

The health commissioners have suggested November 6 and 7 as the most convenient time for holding the clinic, which will extend over two days. Two recognized chest specialists will conduct the examinations, assisted by a nurse from the State Department of Health.

The local clinic will be the fourth of a series to be conducted in various parts of the state during the next year under joint auspices of the State Department of Health, local health authorities, the Ohio State Medical Association and various voluntary health organizations.

CITY IS FREE OF CONTAGIOUS CASES

Xenia City is now free of the slight epidemic of communicable diseases, which were reported in the last few weeks, according to Dr. A. D. De Haven, City Health Commissioner.

R. H. Grube, County Health Commissioner said Wednesday that several cases of scarlet fever had been located at various localities in the county, including four families under quarantine in Bath Township, one in the southwestern part of the county, one at Bowersville, and one at New Burlington. The Bath township families have a case in each suffering from the disease, which has resulted in the Ireland school, there, being closed last Friday by health authorities. The case reported in the southwestern part of the county belongs to Warren County since the child attends school in the latter district. Each family is under quarantine.

Since the cases of diphtheria and scarlet fever in Xenia city were cleared up, no other contagious diseases have been reported, Dr. DeHaven said.

REV. FLACKS WILL APPEAR IN XENIA

Xenia is to be given another opportunity of hearing the Rev. Joseph Flacks, the converted Jew, whose meetings at First Reformed Church a year ago, enlisted popular interest.

The Rev. Charles P. Proudft, of the Second United Presbyterian Church, has affected arrangements with the Rev. Mr. Flacks and with the ministers of Cedarville, whereby the Rev. Mr. Flacks will come to Xenia Sunday afternoon, October 28, for a meeting at the Second U. P. Church. The meeting will be held at three o'clock in the afternoon that persons of all faiths may have the privilege of hearing the Rev. Mr. Flacks without interfering with other services. His topic will be "Jesus Christ, the Jew."

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

After a two weeks' rest Coach John A. Talcott's football players of Cedarville College will journey to Rio Grande next Saturday. At present their record is one won and two lost. With only one week's practice they were defeated by Antioch in the opening game of the season 25 to 9. With some changes in the lineup and a little more practice they showed to better advantage in the two following games. They defeated Findlay 7 to 0 and held Earlham 14 to 7. With two more weeks' practice behind them which was spent in ironing out some of the wrinkles disclosed in the previous games the Cedarville aggregation is displaying a form and spirit which promises to make things highly interesting for Rio Grande.

The Cedarville gridiron was the scene of a hotly contested and enthusiastic football game between the freshmen and sophomores last Friday afternoon. The issue was whether or not the freshmen should be allowed to take the green buttons of their caps. What was lacking in skill was made up in determination the final score being 0 to 0. The proceeds will be ed for buying a large college banner.

MACHINES COLLIDE EARLY THURSDAY: TWO ARE INJURED

Edgar Chandler, near Xenia, student at Central High School, and Corvin Staup, Osborn, barber, employed at the C. H. Coates shop, were both injured when machines they were using collided at King and Church streets shortly before eight o'clock, Thursday morning.

Chandler received a cut on one knee and a deep gash on the hand, that required three stitches to close. Staup was cut, scratched and bruised. Both automobiles were badly damaged, being blown into a telephone pole at the corner after coming together.

Chandler was driving east on Church street, driving a Ford automobile while Staup was driving south on King street in a Dodge sedan when the machines collided. Another boy with Chandler was also scratched and bruised.

City Manager S. O. Hale Thursday took the story of the accident as a text on which he preached a sermon exhorting greater caution from motorists at street intersections especially on narrow thoroughfares.

Many accidents are caused by reckless driving and failure to observe proper caution at the many intersections of Xenia's too-narrow streets, according to Mr. Hale. The streets cannot be remedied he says, but exercise of care by motorists will prevent many accidents.

Superintendent of Schools C. A. Waltz took Central High School pupils to the scene also to show them the necessity of careful driving.

bombers carried the men, their arms and equipment to a section of the battlefield where the "enemy" was about to break through.

TELLS OF JAPANESE DISASTER IN NOTE TO HER PARENTS

Miss Ruth Frazer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Frazer, of Springfield, and niece of Mrs. A. S. Frazer, this city, gave a vivid description of the Japanese earthquake disaster, in a letter received by her parents, recently. Miss Frazer is well known in this city, and relatives feared for her safety, when she left for Japan to be stationed as a Y. W. C. A. worker. She arrived at Yokohama just a day or so after the disaster, aboard a boat from the United States, where she had been on a furlough.

Her letter was started September 3, while the boat was in the harbor at Yokohama, and other parts of it were written on subsequent dates. Miss Frazer did not get a chance to land at Yokohama, as the boat on which she was sailing gathered in its quota of refugees and immediately left. She saw the ruins of the harbor, and heard first hand stories of the disaster from the refugees who boarded the steamer.

'COON SEASON WILL OPEN NOVEMBER 15

D. O. Thompson, chief of the Division of Fish and Game of the State Department of Agriculture is calling attention to the fact that the open season on raccoon does not begin until November 15.

The announcement is being made to county, township and village clerks to correct the dates on the Hunters' and Trappers' Licenses issued by the division, which were issued last December for the 1923, and which show that the raccoon season opens November 1.

The last session of the Legislature, after these licenses had been printed and distributed, changed the raccoon law to make the open season from November 15 to February 1 both dates inclusive. Hunters are advised that they will not be within the law in hunting raccoons until November 15.

FORMER GREENE COUNTIAN PROVES FORTUNE CAN BE MADE HONESTLY IN GENERATION

"It has been said that a fortune can be made honestly by an individual in one generation, but I have not only acquired my own, but have placed a great many people in financially independent positions through proper investment of the money they have intrusted to my guardianship."

This statement comes from a former Greene Countian, Fred C. McMillan, of Des Moines, Ia., layman of the United Presbyterian church, owner of

FIELD DEDICATION EXERCISES TO BE PUT OFF FOR TIME

Because improvements at Cox Memorial Athletic Field will not be completed before Friday when Xenia Central High football team meets Springfield High, the scheduled dedication exercises will not be held in connection with this game.

Pre-season promises had insured plans for an elaborate dedication program to feature the annual contest with Springfield. Workmen are now pouring cement for the new ornamental entrance way to the field, but the work will not be completed before Friday. Likewise, especially constructed bleachers have arrived, but due to inclement weather, have not been installed. They are now being repainted.

Because arrangements could not be completed in time, the dedication will probably feature the Central High-London game to be played here November 16, according to John R. Beacham, business manager. At that time all improvements on the field will have been completed and an interesting program will be arranged for the day.

Central High will play Troy High at Troy next Thursday, the game being advanced because of the Friday and Saturday meeting of the Teachers association.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

New Roadster

Business men—with whom the runabout has always been very popular—are well pleased with the changes embodied in this model.

Always rugged, the car has been made decidedly trimmer and more comfortable.

This result is obtained by raising the radiator and enlarging the cowl, making a decided improvement in looks and providing more leg room.

A well designed top and slanting windshield do their share toward adding a finished, clean-cut appearance.

Make it a point to see the other new models also on display in our show room.

These cars can be obtained through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

STEEL RATES, SUSPENDED

Columbus, Oct. 24.—The public utilities commission suspended until Nov. 6 the effective date of the new schedules for increased rates on iron and steel products, filed by railroads. It is probable that further postponement will follow as a result of a joint hearing in the matter between the state utilities commission and the interstate commerce commission. This hearing will probably be held late in the year at Pittsburgh.

BRINGING UP FATHER

COURT NEWS

Action Dismissed

Satisfaction having been received an action filed in Common Pleas Court by C. E. Brusman, against the Board of County Commissioners, has been dismissed without record.

The petition declares that the plaintiff's wife was driving his automobile on the New Springfield and Dayton pike, in Bath Twp., 1.2 miles east of Huffman Dam, June 22, 1922, when the right wheel dropped into an 18 inch washout and the machine was precipitated over a 30 foot embankment.

The plaintiff declares the washout had been there three months. He asked a total of $344 damages including $300 on the automobile, a $4 doctor bill for cuts sustained by his wife, $40 worth of clothing belonging to his daughter, ruined when it was torn in the accident. F. W. Dunkle of this city and D. H. Wysong of Dayton were attorneys for the plaintiff.

Wants Trust Fund Terminated

An old trust fund created for the benefit of certain divisions of the United Presbyterian Church will be terminated soon by division of the principal among the beneficiaries if objects of the plaintiffs in a case filed in Common Pleas Court are won.

Mary E. Harbison, as surviving trustee under the will of Priscilla Weir, deceased; J. Weir Cooper, Margaret Ballentine and Mary E. Harbison, sole heirs at law of Priscilla Weir, deceased, are bringing the action against The Board of Home Missions of the United Presbyterian Church of North America; The Board of Foreign Missions of the United Presbyterian Church of North America; Elizabeth Cooper, as administratrix of John A. Cooper, deceased and The Second U. P. Church of Xenia Ohio.

Priscilla Weir died September 3, 1876 leaving a trust fund of $1,250, on which interest was to be paid annually to the Foreign Missions of the United Presbyterian Church in Egypt and India the Home Missions of the church and the pastor's salary of the Third United Presbyterian Church. The Third church was consolidated with the Second church in 1904, eliminating that branch of the trust fund.

The plaintiffs say the cost of maintaining and continuing the trust fund is such that it would be for the interest of all the beneficiaries to have the principal paid the beneficiaries and the trust terminated. J. Weir Cooper, Margaret Ballentine and Mary E. Harbison, heirs at law of Priscilla Weir, relinquish all interest in the fund. C. H. Kyle is attorney for the plaintiff.

Partition Allowed
Partition has been allowed in the case of C. H. Kyle, guardian against Nellie T. Schell, in Common Pleas Court. In which Frederick T. Schell and Nellie T. TELLS CLUB OF WORK OF CLINIC

Outlining the work of the Kiwanis Baby Clinic, which has been conducted under the auspices of the club at the Social Service League rooms for about a year, Dr. H. C. Messenger, told members of the organization of the accomplishment of the clinic at the regular meeting of the club at the Elk's Lodge, Wednesday evening.

Specific cases of where the clinic had been able to correct defects in infants were cited by Dr. Messenger who pointed out that by reaching the trouble in infancy, the defective or sickly child can often be guided into strong and vigorous manhood or womanhood. Many of these cases, he said, if they were not taken early would eventually wind up in institutions.

Infants, he said, are brought into the clinic and examined. Treatment is accorded, medicine prescribed, and the case is followed up through a special chart. Cases of cretinism or the absence of the thyroid gland, resulting in under development are being successfully treated, the speaker said, by administering a medicine.

The golf tournament was continued for another week, on account of bad weather.

A WIFE'S STORY

By Jane Phelps

Chapter LXII

For just a moment I left my dead and went up to Laura. I made her lie down after her bath, and in a moment she was sleeping the sleep of exhausted youth. I kissed her pale cheeks, drew the shades and returned to Joan.

My wish for Paul's return had become almost unbearable. I must find him.

"Where are you, Paul?" I cried aloud, just as the door opened and he stood on the threshold, blinking at me in the darkened room.

I started to rise, to go to him, but my limbs refused to move and I sat staring numbly as he came slowly toward me—then stopped, exclaiming:

"My God, Ruby! What has happened?" Even then I could neither move nor speak. He came beside me, leaned over the still form, buried his face in his hands and groaned.

"When—how?" he asked hoarsely. "Yesterday," I answered dully, then the realization that he was with me, that I was no longer alone, swept over me and I flung myself into his arms, while we wept together. When we became calmer I told him how she was found.

"Oh, why was I away? Poor Ruby!" he smoothed her hair.

I had not made up my mind to show him Joan's note to me, but suddenly there crept over me a feeling that my darling's death might not be in vain if it proved the regeneration of her father. Not one thought of the other trouble, the visit of the Revenue men, had come to me but now this menace appeared very near. I left Paul bowed over the still form and going to my room got Joan's pitiful last message and, returning, quietly placed it in his hands.

His eyes widened with horror as he read.

"She did it—purposely," he groaned.

"Yes, Paul. But no one save you and me must ever now," I took the paper from his nerveless hands, pressed my lips to the page, then tore it into tiny bits. "It would kill Laura," I added.

His head in his hands, Paul groaned aloud.

"Tell me," he said after a while, "about this, what Sanders said."

I repeated the conversation, just as I heard it.

"It wasn't because she took a drink now and then. It was because of me, what I am," he said huskily. "My God! How can I bear it?"

It was my turn now to comfort. Paul was shaken to his very soul.

"By turning over a new leaf, Paul. She said it might make you understand you know." Then I pleaded with him as I had never pleaded before. By the side of our dead daughter's side I told him of the visit of the Revenue men, of Joan's humiliation, her fears. I said not a word of my own terror, but pleaded with him not to ruin Laura's life. He answered never a word but with his head in his hands sat quietly occasionally moaning.

I left him there while I telephoned to Evelyn Markham. As I knew she would, she promised to come at once, and a couple of hours later was with me. I told her only what the men had told me and her sweet sympathy, her tactful assumption of all necessary details, helped me bear up. On the morrow all that was mortal of Joan would be laid to rest in the cemetery.

Paul sat beside Joan all day, refusing to leave until we dressed her for her last sleep. No one should touch my darling but myself, so with Evelyn's help we made her ready, while Paul locked himself in his room and Laura slept.

As I have said before, I thought I had borne all that it was humanly possible to bear. Surely now my cup was full and running over. Yet more was to come—was already rapping at the door.

I had started up the stairs to ask Paul to come and look at Joan, now that she was dressed for the last time, but I halted as I heard the honk-honk of a motor.

"I can't see anyone," I called to Evelyn.

"You shan't, Ruby. I shall see you aren't disturbed," she replied just as the doorbell rang an insistent peal through the quiet house.

COMMUNISTS ORDER GENERAL STRIKE OVER GERMANY; RIOTING ON

While Quiet Has Been Restored at Hamburg Fighting Reported From Other Towns In Same District

Berlin, Oct. 25.—Communists proclaimed a general strike today. While quiet had been restored at Hamburg, fighting was reported from other towns in the same district.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—German communists called a general strike today but immediately afterward issued an order confining it only to the printing trades. Leaders threatened to tie up all the newspaper plants. Demonstrations were conducted throughout the city.

Hamburg, Oct. 25.—The harbor was completely tied up today by a strike. Police continued to "clean up" red "nests." Disorders took place in Wandsbeck, which is close to this city.

INJUNCTION OF WALTONS OFFSET BY COURT ORDER

Oklahoma Supreme Court Acts to Nullify Lower Bench.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 25.—An alternative writ of prohibition was granted by the state supreme court to offset a district court order that restrained Lieutenant Governor M. E. Trapp from performing any of the duties of governor heretofore performed by J. C. Walton, suspended Tuesday from office by the senate and impeached by the house of representatives.

Walton proclaimed a few days ago that he would fight to the last ditch, and his opponents assert that the last ditch was reached when his application for a temporary injunction directed against Trapp, his successor in office, was granted by Judge Tom G. Chambers, Sr., of the Oklahoma district court.

A few minutes after its issuance, Attorney General George F. Short and assistants were preparing, on behalf of the lieutenant governor designated by the senate as acting governor, action to nullify the district court's order, on the ground that such court did not have jurisdiction. With lightning dispatch the petitions were prepared and the supreme court assembled in conference. Immediate hearing was allowed. Five minutes after presentation of the matter the writ was granted.

Meantime house and senate had been busy. The house indicted Walton on five articles additional to the two charged against him Tuesday. The senate organized as a court of impeachment, with Chief Justice J. T. Johnson of the supreme court presiding, and rules for its procedure are in process of promulgation.

Walton has been impeached on seven counts, alleging diversion of state funds to private use; preventing assembly of a grand jury by force of arms; use of official influence and power to acquire money for private use; suspension and denial of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus; preventing by force of arms assembling of state house of representatives, and attempted prevention and prevention of special election.

In a statement Walton reiterated his charges of conspiracy to oust him and that the legislature's majority is under the thumb of the Ku Klux Klan. He further charged that the Klan was in collusion with special interests to ruin him.

BORDER TO BORDER AIR FLIGHT STARTS

Summas, Wash., Oct. 25.—Under clear skies and ideal flying conditions Captain Lowell Smith and Lieutenant John T. Richter left here at 8:36 a. m. today in their attempted border-to-border, non-stop airplane flight to the Mexican border. They expected to refuel twice in the air.

The take-off was made a few minutes after daylight, from a farmer's field here. A large crowd was on hand to wish the aviators good luck.

"We ought to be at Miami field on the Mexican border in time for dinner tonight," Captain Smith said, just before entering the plane.

BLAME BOOTLEGGERS FOR BOMBING OF RESIDENCE

Salem, O., Oct. 25.—What is believed to have been an attempt by bootleggers to kill Dr. S. F. Conrad, an East Palestine dentist, who has been active in prosecution of liquor law violators in this vicinity and in Youngstown, occurred here early this morning when his residence was dynamited, wrecking the home and breaking every window in the Methodist Church on an adjoining lot. The loss is estimated at over $2,000. The doctor and his family, who were asleep at the time of the blast, were all thrown from their beds, but miraculously escaped injury.

FARMER - LABOR ORGANIZATIONS WON'T BACK FORD MOVEMENT

Washington, Oct. 25.—Two of the national organizations of farmers and laborers, invited to attend a national conference at Detroit on December 12, at which plans will be launched for the Ford-for-president movement, announced here today, they will not participate. These organizations are the American Federation of Labor and the American Farm Bureau Federation.

PLAN MEMORIAL TO GEN. W. C. GORGAS

Chicago, Oct. 25.—The world's tribute to the memory of General William C. Gorgas, whose sanitation projects made possible the building of the Panama canal, will link more closely the scientific thought of North, Central and South America. The scientific laboratory to be located in the city of Panama and dedicated to General Gorgas' memory will accomplish this union. This was the prediction of Dr. J. J. Vallarino of Panama at the congress of the American College of Surgeons, which is solidly behind the proposed $5,000,000 endowment fund to carry on research work in tropical and preventative medicine.

The eradication of yellow fever, Dr. Vallarino said, has earned for General Gorgas the title of "economic savior of Cuba and the redeemer of the tropics."

INVOKES PADLOCK LAW IN CLEVELAND

Cleveland, Oct. 25.—Loosers of 17 alleged "liquor joints" were ordered "padlocked" by Federal Judge Paul Jones, following wholesale complaint filed before him by Assistant United States District Attorney Fred S. Day. Proprietors of all of the places were branded notorious offenders by Day, who immediately dispatched a small army of federal marshals to the saloons with order to close them immediately.

Akron, O., Oct. 25.—"That's too bad—I'm sorry. I am ready now to take my punishment."

With these words, M. F. (Rabbit) Webb, in his cell this morning, greeted an announcement that Judge F. W. Gerhardt, of Detroit, had expired last night from a gunshot wound inflicted by Webb. The shooting took place in the lobby of the Portage Hotel here Saturday noon, after Judge Gerhardt and Judge P. C. Callen of Toronto refused to reinstate Webb following their decision ruling him off the Northampton track. Callen also was shot in the body before Webb was disarmed.

FURTHER PROBE OF U.S. VETERANS' BUREAU TO FOLLOW LATE CHARGES

Treasury and Department of Justice Begin Investigation of Alleged Crimes Laid to Door of Bureau—Graft And Bribery Charged

Washington, Oct. 25.—Two new federal investigations into operation of the United States Veterans' Bureau were soon today as a sequel to the sensational charge of graft and bribery brought against Colonel Charles R. Forbes, former director, before a Senate committee.

These were:
1.—The Treasury Department, through the internal revenue bureau, launched an inquiry into the whereabouts of $5,000,000 worth of drugs and narcotics stored by the bureau at Perryville, Md., during Forbes administration. Huge quantities of these drugs are reported to have "disappeared."

2.—The Department of Justice was planning an exhaustive probe of charges involving Forbes in an alleged conspiracy to allot millions of dollars worth of hospital construction work to a favored clique of contractors in return for a "split of the profits."

The Senate committee's special staff of investigators, headed by Major General John F. O'Ryan, meanwhile, was probing the bureau's records for trace of fraud and graft throughout the government's $17,000,000 hospital construction program. Evidence of seeming fraud has been unearthed, it was said, in the leasing of sites and award of construction contracts in a number of instances.

Interest in the Senate inquiry today was centered on whether Forbes will accept an invitation of the committee to testify in his own defense. Forbes has told the International News Service he would appear "to tell his own side of the story."

Although the former director is reported to be in New York City today, prior to his departure he made the following statement in International News Service:
"I intended to give you a complete statement of this whole case but I have learned there will be further attacks upon me and I can't speak at this time. I will wait until they are finished attacking me and then I'll tell my side of the story. When I do talk, they will get another 'sensation.'"

From other sources, it was learned Forbes has employed an attorney to represent him at further hearings of the senate committee. The attorney also is preparing the former director's defense.

The former director was said to be planning to use a dozen letters from the late President Harding as the basis of his defense. In these letters, the late executive frequently endorsed Forbes' administration of the bureau, it was said.

The internal revenue bureau's investigation of the reported "disappearance of drugs and narcotics from the medical supply store in Perryville, Md., was based on information given it by General O'Ryan, the senate's special investigator. Inventory of the stocks on hand at Perryville, it was said, does not agree with an inventory of stocks shipped there by the war department two years ago.

Evidence already has been unearthed of conditions which showed at least gross negligence in the "loss" of these drugs. It was said literally "tons of narcotics" are missing.

This situation was touched upon by Elias H. Mortimer of Philadelphia, in his sensational testimony yesterday before the senate committee. Mortimer testified Forbes had asked him to "clean up a fortune" by helping to privately dispose of the government's supply of drugs at Perryville.

A protracted investigation of alleged graft in hospital construction has been conducted by General O'Ryan, it was learned. This information will be turned over to the Department of Justice for such action as the legal authorities determine.

This evidence involves:
1.—An alleged existence of a profit-sharing "contracting ring" between Forbes, the Hurley-Mason Company of Tacoma, Washington and the series of firms owned jointly by James H. Black and John W. Thompson, of St. Louis, by which profits on construction of government hospitals were to be shared equally three ways. Black died recently.

2.—Charges of graft in the selection of a hospital site at Livermore, California, and alleged payment of $64,000 to Matthew O'Brien, of San Francisco, friend of Forbes, for worthless plans. This payment was approved by Charles F. Kramer, counsel of the bureau who since has committed suicide.

3.—Award of a contract to C. D. Hurley, of Seattle, president of the Hurley-Mason Company, for construction of a hospital at American Lake, Washington. Forbes was a former vice president in this company.

4.—Award of a contract to construct a hospital at Northampton, Mass., to the Pontiac Construction Company, of Detroit, owned by the Black-Thompson interests.

5.—Alleged "loan" of $32,000 to Forbes by John W. Thompson, of St. Louis, during negotiation of construction contracts.

6.—The alleged "loan" of $6,500 to Forbes by Mortimer under the same conditions.

7.—Award of a $65,000 contract to the Sutherland Company of St. Louis for construction work at Tupper Lake, N. Y., for which Mortimer received a $2500 commission.

The senate investigators, it was learned, are prepared to present much additional evidence relating to most of these cases when the committee reconvenes next Monday morning.

AGED WOMAN IS SLAIN; ROBBERY THOUGHT MOTIVE

Elyria Resident Murdered In Home—Are Seeking—Slayer

Elyria, O., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Anne E. Hebebrand, 79, living alone, was found brutally murdered today. The slaying is attributed to robbery. The victim put up a fierce battle before being rendered unconscious by a blow from a blunt instrument, probably the rung of a chair. Her skull was fractured by the blows.

The assailant made sure of death for as the unconscious form lay on the floor, marks about the neck indicated that death was hastened and made certain by choking.

The victim is worth $50,000 but only $60 was secured. The furniture and sewing machine were overturned. Two empty pocketbooks were found on the floor.

Two years ago, this same woman was hit over the head by a blunt instrument and for several weeks lay in a semi-conscious condition. Following this assault she placed the several thousand dollars secreted about the home in a bank.

LLOYD GEORGE IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

Washington, Oct. 25.—There will be no complete breaking up of the German reich, in the opinion of David Lloyd George, wartime premier of Great Britain.

"I believe," said Lloyd George today, during his first visit to Washington, "that the racial pride and feeling among the German peoples is too great to permit an utter collapse of nationalism."

Washington Oct. 25.—David Lloyd George, England's war time premier, came to Washington today to visit the capital, see a few old friends and incidentally to lay before President Coolidge and administration leaders his oft-repeated appeal for the co-operation and active assistance of the United States in settling world problems.

His train reached the capital early this morning, but he did not leave it until shortly before 9 o'clock, when he emerged and drove down historic Pennsylvania avenue, at the Willard hotel, where he will make his headquarters during his stay.

AMERICA READY TO ASSIST EUROPE WASHINGTON SAYS

Washington, Oct. 25.—Ambassador Harvey's speech in London drew an authoritative exposition of the official American attitude toward the European crisis from the Coolidge administration. In substance, it follows:

The reparations question is fundamental and nothing like stability in Europe can be reached until the reparations sum is fixed and out of the way forever. The United States stands ready now, as it did last December, to assist in any way possible in the solution of the reparations problem, but only with the consent of all concerned. It will not attempt to force its assistance upon Europe.

The United States will not attempt to lead the way by cancelling debts owed by European nations. American sentiment is strongly against cancellation, and this administration will not even consider such a step. All European nations will find the United States disposed to be just, even generous, in terms of debt settlements, but the debts will not be canceled.

The integrity of Germany must be maintained if reparations are to be collected. The end of passive resistance by Germany has created a situation calling for the adoption of a definite financial plan.

Secretary of State Hughes' plan for a reparations fact finding commission to determine Germany's capacity to pay, it was revealed, was communicated through diplomatic channels before being made public in the New Haven address a year ago.

The present American attitude is that while the United States desires to be helpful, it can not seek to abrogate the right of foreign governments to determine the best methods for serving their own interests.

Evans. Zeuschner, Frank Piccoli, Guy Riaca and Joseph Gaal, said to be still operators, were arrested.

BRINGING UP BILL

CURZON ACCUSED BY GRAIN OPERATOR

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Charges that his brother-in-law, Lord Curzon, England's minister of foreign affairs, is trying to oust him as trustee of the estate of his father, the late Levi Z. Leiter, because he refused to permit Lord Curzon to have his way, have been made by Joseph Leiter, prominent Chicago grain operator. He said Curzon had used money belonging to his daughters. Mr. Leiter filed in superior court a document charging the English minister with being the prime instigator of an attack on his good name.

TO SOUND OUT FORD ON HIS CANDIDACY

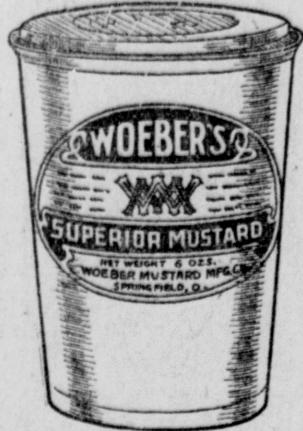

Dearborn, Mich., Oct. 25.—Henry Ford will be asked to state definitely whether he would accept the nomination as a candidate for president on any ticket, Rev. William Dawe, president of the Dearborn Ford-for-President club said. Discussing the call for a meeting of Ford backers in Detroit Dec. 12, Mr. Dawe said Ford's own reticence led to the inactivity of the club during the past summer, but the recent outburst on Muscle Shoals and heavy correspondence showed there was a demand for Ford to run.

The Monroe Doctrine.

The next session of Congress convenes December 4, 1923. Its assembly will mark the passage of 100 years since James Monroe delivered his presidential message to Congress, December 2, 1823, enunciating the Monroe Doctrine.

This doctrine set forth two broad propositions: first that the United States did not propose to permit European powers to further extend their political systems or governments to this hemisphere, and second, that the United States did not intend to interfere in the political affairs of Europe. President Monroe enunciated this American policy as a matter of self-defense for the United States and its democratic form of government. During this hundred years it has been known throughout the world as the American policy.

Secretary of State Hughes, in a recent address before the American Bar Association, took occasion to reaffirm it, saying, "with the passing of one hundred years, it remains a cherished policy inimical to no just interest and deemed to be vitally related to our own safety and to the peaceful progress of the people of this hemisphere."

The United States Senate in 1920 found it necessary to defend the Monroe Doctrine from the covenant of the league of nations which would have nullified its operation. This the Senate did by adopting a reservation to the league covenant which stated that the United States would not submit to the league of nations "any questions in which the judgement of the United States depend upon or relate to its long-established policy, commonly known as the Monroe Doctrine."

The Monroe Doctrine contributed much during the last hundred years to the growth of democratic institutions in this hemisphere and to territorial integrity of the nations of this hemisphere. It is one of America's important contributions to the cause of free institutions and progressive civilization.

Styles BY LENORE

Nothing is so old-fashioned as a style four or five years old, and nothing is so new if it be but old enough. The model in the sketch, which is one of the newest ideas this fall at the Paris openings, takes the drapery of 1850 as its scheme, with an effect which only the lover of beautiful line can appreciate, and to which only the most graceful figure can do justice.

Gold lame shot with sunset rose has been used for this stunning gown, a gold brocaded ribbon holding the drapery in place. As the sketch indicates, the material at each side in the back is disposed of in cascading ends, suggesting facile influence. Moire, in coral or pea green, will also make up most beautifully on the same lines.

PAINTERSVILLE

Sunday will be a "red letter" day at the Paintersville Church, when Rally Day will be observed. Sunday School will open at 9:30 o'clock with a Rally Day program at 10 o'clock. Twelve students of Cedarville College will fill the most important part of the program. Members of the church and citizens of the town will attend the meeting with well filled baskets. H. E. Bates is superintendent of the Sunday School.

A PROBLEM

1903-- Twenty Years Ago--1923

Presiding Elder V. F. Brown preached to a large audience at Trinity Church last evening.

The proprietors of the old pork house on East Church Street have sold the material of the building and it is to be moved. This is a matter of congratulation, as it certainly would not be desirable to have the unsightly structure remain there after our elegant new Carnegie library, in such close proximity, is finished.

Cuticura Heals Pimples On Face Shoulders and Back

"My trouble started with large, red, sore pimples that affected my face, shoulders and back. The pimples festered and at times itched and burned. My face was disfigured, and my clothing aggravated the breaking out on my body. I was troubled that way for three years. I tried many remedies but they did not help me. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using it I got relief. I purchased more and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." Child-birth

WHEN the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend."

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start now, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., B.A.-5, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

THE DESIRE

No matter how many excuses you may offer for your failure to rise to the heights you most desire, one fact remains—you rise no higher than you desire to rise.

Even when you are so fortunate as to have something handed to you you have to reach to take it.

Nested and warmed, there lies in every human heart some sort of desire—a desire to rise above mediocrity, a desire to surpass present effort, to be strong and able and fit, ready for emergency or the call of a fortunate hour.

But desires must be fed. You cannot have a desire and then leave it alone. It will die.

Move with your desire, give it clothes, take it out into the world and introduce it to activities and affairs of movement.

Talk to your desires. Each one is surrounded with some one or many chances. So that if your desires are fed and led aright, all that you are takes on growth and strength.

The desire in your heart is what you are, what you hope to be, what you determine to be.

You must carry about with you mental pictures of the thing you most desire and then that thing shall come to pass. And you must keep stepping toward it. You must keep wrapping it with your dreams—and then with actual deeds.

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

A listed security is not necessarily better than an unlisted one. Each has its advantages.

The characteristics of listed and unlisted securities are shown in the illustration. Listed bonds have several advantages.

ages. They have a quick ready market, their prices being quoted daily in many newspapers. This gives them a higher collateral value, particularly in the large financial centers.

The vast majority of unlisted securities do not have as quick a market as the listed, although there is a large volume of trading in them. Consequently an unlisted bond is not so likely to slump in sympathy with a general decline in the stock and bond markets.

In comparing the two, it is important, in the case of a listed bond, to analyze carefully the company issuing the securities. In the case of the unlisted bond, the bank or bond house selling security must also be considered because the house behind the bond is going to watch it and make a market for it. A good house feels the responsibility of its bonds keenly while a poor one is only interested in making a sale.

HOLD TUBERCULOSIS CLINIC IN XENIA

A tuberculosis clinic with thorough physical examination of persons believed to have incipient cases of the disease will be conducted in Greene County in the next few weeks as part of the state and district health program, as announced by Dr. H. R. Grube, district health commissioner following receipt from the State Department of Health of an offer to install such service here. This service will be without expense to those examined.

The health commissioners have suggested November 6 and 7 as the most convenient time for holding the clinic, which will extend over two days. Two recognized chest specialists will conduct the examinations, assisted by a nurse from the State Department of Health.

The local clinic will be the fourth of a series to be conducted in various parts of the state during the next year under joint auspices of the State Department of Health, local health authorities, the Ohio State Medical Association and various voluntary health organizations.

CITY IS FREE OF CONTAGIOUS CASES

Xenia City is now free of the slight epidemic of communicable diseases, which were reported in the last few weeks, according to Dr. A. D. De Haven, City Health Commissioner.

R. H. Grube, County Health Commissioner said Wednesday that several cases of scarlet fever had been located at various vicinities in the county, including four families under quarantine in Bath Township, one in the southwestern part of the county, one at Bowersville, and one at New Burlington. The Bath township families have a case in each suffering from the disease, which has resulted in the Ireland school, there being closed last Friday by health authorities. The case reported in the southwestern part of the county belongs to Warren County since the child attends school in the latter district. Each family is under quarantine.

Since the cases of diphtheria and scarlet fever in Xenia city were cleared up, no other contagious diseases have been reported, Dr. DeHaven said.

REV. FLACKS WILL APPEAR IN XENIA

Xenia is to be given another opportunity of hearing the Rev. Joseph Flacks, the converted Jew, whose meetings at First Reformed Church a year ago, enlisted popular interest.

The Rev. Charles P. Proudft, of the Second United Presbyterian Church, has affected arrangements with the Rev. Mr. Flacks and with the ministers of Cedarville, whereby the Rev. Mr. Flacks will come to Xenia Sunday afternoon, October 28, for a meeting at the Second U. P. Church. The meeting will be held at three o'clock in the afternoon that persons of all faiths may have the privilege of hearing the Rev. Mr. Flacks without interfering with other services. His topic will be "Jesus Christ, the Jew."

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

AUSTRIAN FASCISTI HAIL HITLER

Adolph Hitler, the Bavarian leader, recently visited Salzburg, where he reviewed the Austrian troops, said to be members of the Austrian Fascisti, favorable to the return of a monarchy. The emblem of the Hitlerites—the Swastika—was prominently displayed during the ceremonies.

CEDARVILLE

Receptions have been given for the Cedarville College students at both the Reformed Presbyterian Church and the Methodist Church. Delightful programs of music and games were planned for the enjoyment of the students by the different members of the churches. The older students were meeting the new and helping them to become acquainted and to feel at home. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting of Cedarville College are held Wednesday morning in the college chapel. The girls have entered into this association with a great deal of interest and enthusiasm. Prof. Somers leading in the devotions and short talks that followed at the first meeting. The second meeting was held under the leadership of Miss Porter. The subject under discussion was "Friendship." A number of short talks were given upon the duty of friendship.

After a two weeks' rest Coach John A. Talcott's football players of Cedarville College will journey to Rio Grande next Saturday. At present their record is one won and no lost. With only one week's practice they were defeated by Antioch in the opening game of the season 25 to 9. With some changes in the lineup and a little more practice they showed to better advantage in the two following games. They defeated Findlay 7 to 0 and held Earlham 14 to 7. With two more weeks' practice behind them which was spent in ironing out some of the wrinkles disclosed in the previous games the Cedarville aggregation is displaying a form and spirit which promises to make things highly interesting for Rio Grande.

The Cedarville gridiron was the scene of a hotly contested and enthusiastic football game between the freshmen and sophomores last Friday afternoon. The issue was whether or not the freshmen should be allowed to take the green buttons of their caps. What was lacking in skill was made up in determination the final score being 0 to 0. The proceeds will be used for buying a large college banner.

RETURNING CONFIDENCE MARKS CENTRAL
HIGH'S PREPARATION FOR SPRINGFIELD

Brighter and warmer weather, and a return of pep and confidence, may set the stage for the comeback of the Central High School football eleven in its meeting with Springfield High at Cox Memorial Athletic Field Friday afternoon.

Out of the muck of despair that has gripped the eleven during the present season, there is now a returning confidence such as that which excited the blue and white eleven to victories during the last two years.

Despite the fact that Currie will be out of the pasturing with an injured knee, Captain Don Fuller and his mates are beginning to believe they are unbeatable. They are assuming the attitude that the team is just as good as it ever was, that Springfield High will turn out to be a dish of fish, and that from now on the locals are going to slaughter all opponents in order.

This is a particularly befitting attitude to bear into a contest with Springfield because Coach Matheny's warriors are plagued by a hoodoo. The Springfielders are convinced that nothing but the hazy and supernatural powers of a jinx caused them to lose to Xenia last year and the year before. Their technique went astray each of those years under the demoralizing realization that they were not only playing a good football team but that the locals were guarded over by a genii who contrived to make everything happen just right, for the Xenia eleven.

Coach Matheny is practicing his

J. H. Dorton, W. Graham, Va., says: "I was told that getting up nights was a disease that belonged to old people. I have found different I have taken Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) a short time and now I am normal. I had to get up 7 or 8 times a night. I have been troubled for 40 years. Will gladly tell anyone personally."

Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) acts on the kidneys and bladder like Epsom salts on the bowels. It cleans them out, relieving the bladder of many abnormal deposits. These tablets cost 2¢ apiece. This price makes it possible to place in the formula several drugs which are useful for relief. The formula is on the package. It is not likely you have ever taken anything similar. Try a few tablets for backache, aching, scanty or high-colored urine, and frequent desire at night.

Be sure to get the Keller formula Lithiated Buchu at all drug stores, or write Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, O., or locally at Sayre and Hemphill.

CHANGE OF LIFE LOSES TERRORS

For Women Who Rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Greenville, Pa.—"I took your medicine through the Change of Life and it did wonders for me."

I was down in bed when I started to take it and weighed 95 pounds. I had hot flashes and was so nervous and weak that everything would get black and I could not see. I would sit and cry and did not know what I was crying for. Since I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel younger than I did ten years ago, and my friends all tell me I look younger, and I owe it all to the Vegetable Compound. I do all my housework for a family of seven now. I will be glad to answer any woman who writes me in regard to my case."—Mrs. JOHN MYERS, 55 Union St., Greenville, Pa.

Many letters similar to this have been published testifying to the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They are sincere expressions from women who describe as best they can their feelings before and after taking this well-known medicine.

Many times they state in their letters their willingness to answer women who write them. It is an offer dictated by gratitude and a desire to help others.

WOMAN RIDER CURES ROGUE RACE HORSE

Ramus, famous French race-horse, was left at the post in the recent Goodwood Cup race in Paris, despite the efforts of Steve Donoghue, great English rider. Ramus has been known as a rogue horse—one that refused to start and always tried to kill his jockey. But Ramus has yielded now, for Mlle. Fanny Heldy, prominent turfwoman and owner of a racing stable, took him over, and under her feminine hand, he has been broken and makes his starts without further fuss. A great racing future is predicted for the horse.

MACHINES COLLIDE EARLY THURSDAY: TWO ARE INJURED

Edgar Chandler, near Xenia, student at Central High School, and Corvin Staup, Osborn, barber, employed at the C. H. Cones shop, were both injured when machines they were using collided at King and Church streets shortly before eight o'clock, Thursday morning.

Chandler received a cut on one knee and a deep gash on the hand, that required three stitches to close. Staup was cut, scratched and bruised. Both automobiles were badly damaged, being thrown into a telephone pole at the corner after coming together.

Chandler was driving east on Church street, driving a Ford automobile while Staup was driving south on King street in a Dodge sedan when the machines collided. Another boy with Chandler was also scratched and bruised.

City Manager S. O. Hale Thursday took the story of the accident as a text on which he preached a sermon exhorting greater caution from motorists at street intersections especially on narrow thoroughfares.

Many accidents are caused by reckless driving and failure to observe proper caution at the many intersections of Xenia's too-narrow streets, according to Mr. Hale. The streets cannot be remedied he says, but exercise of care by motorists will prevent many accidents.

Superintendent of Schools C. A. Waltz took Central High School pupils to the scene also to show them the necessity of careful driving.

TROOPS TRANSPORTED BY AIRPLANE IN MANEUVERS

Moving troops by airplane

For the first time in history troops have been transported by airplane from one part of a battlefield for emergency use in another. The latest method of troop movement was introduced by the United States Marine Corps maneuvers in Virginia, when huge Martin bombers carried the men, their arms and equipment to a section of the battlefield where the "enemy" was about to break through.

TELLS OF JAPANESE DISASTER IN NOTE TO HER PARENTS

Miss Ruth Frazer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Frazer, of Springfield, and niece of Mrs. A. S. Frazer, this city, gave a vivid description of the Japanese earthquake disaster, in a letter received by her parents, recently. Miss Frazer is well known in this city, and relatives feared for her safety, when she left for Japan to be stationed as a Y. W. C. A. worker. She arrived at Yokohama just a day or so after the disaster, aboard a boat from the United States, where she had been on a furlough.

'COON SEASON WILL OPEN NOVEMBER 15

D. O. Thompson, chief of the Division of Fish and Game of the State Department of Agriculture is calling attention to the fact that the open season on raccoons does not begin until November 15.

The announcement is being made to county, township and village clerks to correct the dates on the Hunters' and Trappers' Licenses issued by the division, which were issued last December for the 1923, and which show that the raccoon season opens November 1.

The last session of the Legislature, after these licenses had been printed and distributed, changed the raccoon law to make the open season from November 15 to February 1 both dates inclusive. Hunters are advised that they will not be within the law in hunting raccoons until November 15.

FORMER GREENE COUNTIAN PROVES FORTUNE CAN BE MADE HONESTLY IN GENERATION

"It has been said that a fortune can be made in one generation, but I have not only acquired my own, but have placed a great many people in financially independent positions through proper investment of the money they have entrusted to my guardianship."

This statement comes from a former Greene Countian, Fred C. McMillan, of Des Moines, Ia., layman of the United Presbyterian church, owner of

FIELD DEDICATION EXERCISES TO BE PUT OFF FOR TIME

Because improvements at Cox Memorial Athletic Field will not be completed before Friday when Xenia Central High football team meets Springfield High, the scheduled dedication exercises will not be held in connection with this game.

Pre-season promises had insured plans for an elaborate dedication program to feature the annual contest with Springfield. Workmen are now pouring cement for the new ornamental entrance way to the field, but the work will not be completed before Friday. Likewise, especially constructed bleachers have arrived, but due to inclement weather, have not been installed. They are now being repainted.

Because arrangements could not be completed in time, the dedication will probably feature the Central High-London game to be played here November 16, according to John R. Beacham, business manager. At that time all improvements on the field will have been completed and an interesting program will be arranged for the day.

Central High will play Troy High at Troy next Thursday, the game being advanced because of the Friday and Saturday meeting of the Teachers association.

Colleagues of Mr. McMillan, at Monmouth College, in Illinois say that he was the despair of the faculty because he would debase school completely for periods of days and sometimes weeks to devote himself to one or another money-making scheme. He lived a number of years ago with his mother near Cedarville until he entered college at Monmouth.

He has never let money get ahead of his religion, however, and today is one of the best known lay evangelists in his denomination, and declared that

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

New Roadster

Business men—with whom the runabout has always been very popular—are well pleased with the changes embodied in this model.

Always rugged, the car has been made decidedly trimmer and more comfortable.

This result is obtained by raising the radiator and enlarging the cowl, making a decided improvement in looks and providing more leg room.

A well designed top and glazing windshield do their share toward adding a finished, clear-cut appearance.

Make it a point to see the other new models also on display in our show room.

COURT NEWS

Action Dismissed

Satisfaction having been received an action filed in Common Pleas Court by C. E. Brusman, against the Board of County Commissioners, has been dismissed without record.

The petition declares that the plaintiff's wife was driving his automobile on the New Springfield and Dayton pike, in Bath Twp., 1.2 miles east of Huffman Dam, June 22, 1922, when the right wheel dropped into an 18 inch washout and the machine was precipitated over a 20 foot embankment.

The plaintiff declares the washout had been there three months. He asked a total of $344 damages including $300 on the automobile, a $4 doctor bill for cuts sustained by his wife, $40 worth of clothing belonging to his daughter, ruined when it was torn in the accident. F. W. Dunkle of this city and D. H. Wyson of Dayton were attorneys for the plaintiff.

Wants Trust Fund Terminated

An old trust fund created for the benefit of certain divisions of the United Presbyterian Church will be terminated soon by division of the principal among the beneficiaries if objects of the plaintiffs in a case filed in Common Pleas Court are won.

Mary E. Harbison, as surviving trustee under the will of Priscilla Weir, deceased; J. Weir Cooper, Margaret Ballentine and Mary E. Harbison, sole heirs at law of Priscilla Weir, deceased, are bringing the action against The Board of Home Missions of the United Presbyterian Church of North America; The Board of Foreign Missions of the United Presbyterian Church of North America; Elizabeth Cooper, as administratrix of John A. Cooper, deceased and The Second U. P. Church of Xenia, Ohio.

Priscilla Weir died September 3, 1876 leaving a trust fund of $1250, on which interest was to be paid annually to the Foreign Missions of the United Presbyterian Church in Egypt and India the Home Missions of the church and the pastor's salary of the Third United Presbyterian Church. The Third church was consolidated with the Second church in 1904, eliminating that branch of the trust fund.

The plaintiffs say the cost of maintaining and continuing the trust fund is such that it would be for the interest of all the beneficiaries to have the principal paid the beneficiaries and the trust terminated. J. Weir Cooper, Margaret Ballentine and Mary E. Harbison, heirs at law of Priscilla Weir, relinquish all interest in the fund. C. H. Kyle is attorney for the plaintiff.

Partition Allowed

Partition has been allowed in the case of C. H. Kyle, guardian against Nellie T. Schell, in Common Pleas Court, in which Frederick T. Schell and Nellie T. Schell are each entitled to one-half the estate and Edwin Galgowsky, Walter Harner and T. D. Kyle were appointed commissioners to partition the property.

Ordered Sold

Property involved in the case of Anna B. Wilson, and others against Forest Gordon, and others, in Common Pleas Court has been ordered sold by the Court.

Husband Gets Divorce

Fred Robinette has been granted a divorce decree from Melva Robinette on the grounds of gross neglect of duty.

Sale Is Approved

Sale of property involved in the case of D. E. Bailey, Guardian against Jacob Persinger and others, to W. D. and Ma S. Clemmer, has been approved and confirmed in Common Pleas Court.

TELLS CLUB OF WORK OF CLINIC

Outlining the work of the Kiwanis Baby Clinic, which has been conducted under the auspices of the club at the Social Service League rooms for about a year, Dr. H. C. Messenger, told members of the organization of the accomplishments of the clinic at the regular meeting of the club at the Elk's Lodge, Wednesday evening.

Specific cases of where the clinic had been able to correct defects in infants were cited by Dr. Messenger who pointed out that by reaching the trouble in infancy, the defective or sickly child can often be guided into strong and vigorous manhood or womanhood. Many of these cases, he said, if they were not taken early would eventually wind up in institutions.

Infants, he said, are brought into the clinic and examined. Treatment is accorded, medicine prescribed, and the case is followed up through a special chart. Cases of cretinism or the absence of the thyroid gland, resulting in under development are being successfully treated, the speaker said, by administering a medicine.

The golf tournament was continued for another week, on account of bad weather.

A WIFE'S STORY

By Jane Phelps

Chapter LXII

For just a moment I left my dead and went up to Laura. I made her lie down after her bath, and in a moment she was sleeping the sleep of exhausted youth. I kissed her pale cheeks, drew the shades and returned to Joan.

My wish for Paul's return had become almost unbearable. I must find him.

"Where are you, Paul?" I cried aloud, just as the door opened and he stood on the threshold, blinking at me in the darkened room.

I started to rise, to go to him, but my limbs refused to move and I sat staring numbly as he came slowly toward me—then stopped, exclaiming:

"My God, Ruby! What has happened?" Even then I could neither move nor speak. He came beside me, leaned over the still form, buried his face in his hands and groaned.

"When—how?" he asked hoarsely.

"Yesterday," I answered dully, then the realization that he was with me, that I was no longer alone, swept over me and I flung myself into his arms, while we wept together. When we became calmer I told him how she was found.

"Oh, why was I away? Poor Ruby!" he smoothed her hair.

I had not made up my mind to show him Joan's note to me, but suddenly there crept over me a feeling that my darling's death might not be in vain if it proved the regeneration of her father. Not one thought of the other trouble, the visit of the Revenue men, had come to me but now this menace appeared very near. I left Paul bowed over the still form and going to my room got Joan's pitiful last message and, returning, quietly placed it in his hands.

His eyes widened with horror as he read.

"She did it—purposely," he groaned.

"Yes, Paul. But no one save you and me must ever know." I took the paper from his nerveless hands, pressed my lips to the page, then tore it into tiny bits. "It would kill Laura," I added.

His head in his hands, Paul groaned aloud.

"Tell me," he said after a while, "about this, what Sanders said."

I repeated the conversation, just as I heard it.

"It wasn't because she took a drink now and then. It was because of me, what I am," he said huskily. "My God! How can I bear it!"

It was my turn now to comfort. Paul was shaken to his very soul.

"By turning over a new leaf, Paul. She said it might make you understand you know."

Then I pleaded with him as I had never pleaded before. By the side of our dead daughter's side I told him of the visit of the Revenue men, of Joan's humiliation, her fears. I said not a word of my own terror, but pleaded with him not to ruin Laura's life. He answered never a word but with his head in his hands sat quietly occasionally moaning.

I left him there while I telephoned to Evelyn Markham. As I knew she would, she promised to come at once, and a couple of hours later was with me. I told her only what the men had told me and her sweet sympathy, her tactful assumption of all necessary details, helped me bear up. On the morrow all that was mortal of Joan would be laid to rest in the cemetery.

Paul sat beside Joan all day, refusing to leave until we dressed her for her last sleep. No one should touch my darling but myself, so with Evelyn's help we made her ready, while Paul locked himself in his room and Laura slept.

As I have said before, I thought I had borne all that it was humanly possible to bear. Surely now my cup was full and running over. Yet more was to come—was already rapping at the door.

I had started up the stairs to ask Paul to come and look at Joan, now that she was dressed for the last time, but I halted as I heard the honk-honk of a motor.

"I can't see anyone," I called to Evelyn.

"You shan't, Ruby. I shall see you aren't disturbed," she replied just as the doorbell rang an insistent peal through the quiet house.
